

It is our pleasure to announce that starting from this year we, Turkish American Society of Chicago, are initiating to hold a contest named as “Intercultural Art and Language Contest” to promote friendship and dialog between different cultures. Contestants will sing songs, recite poems, and perform folk dances in different languages such as English, Spanish, and Turkish.

We would like cordially to invite you to the event as our distinguished guest.

Please kindly RSVP by Tue, March 19, 2013 at info@tascweb.org
